AN WHO LET SLIP FORTUNE OF MILLION IS DECLARED INSANE

Guardian Named for George F. Steger on Order of Chicago Court

CHICAGO, Ill.—A trust company was appointed conservator for the estate of George F. Steger, until recently treasurer of the Steger & Sons piano company. He was described mentally incompetent and financially irresponsible in Judge Horner's probate court Friday.

It developed at the hearing that Steger had accepted hundreds of loans from foreign-born residents of Steger, Illinois, Hammond, Gary, and South Chicago, on which it was alleged he paid interest rates as high as fifty percent and that the million dollar estate left him by his father, the founder of the piano company had dwindled to about $150,000.

One man is said to have obtained $100,000 from Steger in settling a debt originally amounting to $1,000, and now has a suit on file for $150,000.

Investments in real estate and securities were made, Steger said at the hearing, in the hope of being able some day to sell out at a profit and pay back the loans he had solicited but the interest on his notes and his creditors' methods of compounding the interest into new notes made it impossible for him to meet the claims.

FIRST QUIT POST ON HIGHWAY BOARD AFTER LONG TERM

A. R. First on Friday presented his resignation as chief engineer of the Wisconsin state highway commission.

Mr. First is the oldest highway engineer in continuous service in a state highway department in the country. He has occupied the position in Wisconsin since 1911, when the department was created. Previous to that he was associated with the Wisconsin Geological and Natural History survey.

In highway engineering circles, Mr. First is regarded as one of the foremost in his profession. He is a native of Long Island, where he was born in 1881.

Previous to coming to Wisconsin he was connected with the Maryland highway and Illinois state highway commission.

Mr. First is well known in La Crosse, where he has been a frequent business visitor.

"THE 13TH COMMANDMENT"

Women of luxury, idle wives. Spending the wealth that their husbands earn.

Crying for more when the purse runs low.

Courting temptation at every turn.

Capable wives with the will to brave.

State in the struggling world of trade.

Partners of husbands and free as air.

Home life abandoned—the price they paid.

Which is the greater to be desired.

What is in store for the woman who lives.

Soberly for pleasure, a slave to whims?

What of the woman who takes—and gives?

Clearly "The Thirteenth Commandment" shows.

Paths that are trodden by every wife.

Chic Ethel Clayton, the girl of your dreams.

Starts in this foretold drama of life.

EUGENE O'BRIEN AT RIVOLI SUNDAY ONLY

Eugene O'Brien, blond, six feet tall, unspoiled possessor of the perfect profile, has recently finished "The Wonderful Chance," his seventh starring vehicle under the Selznick management—the seventh in a little less than a year—and which is announced by the Rivoli theater as the attraction for Sunday only.

"CHORUS GIRL"—RIVIERA

Never has Viola Dana had a part affording her greater opportunity to display her irrepressible charm than in "The Chorus Girl's Romance," at the Riviera theater tonight.

It might be added that there are other chances provided by the story. The second chance Miss Dana has is to shine.

As the leading woman in a musical comedy first-nighting in New Haven, the little star is called upon to cause her shoulders to be agitated in that peculiarly modern and provocative manner which has been labeled the shimmy.

Chief in support of Miss Dana is Gareth Hughes as Horace Tarbox, the scholarly prodigy of Yale and the other half of the romance. Others

"BROKEN BUTTERFLY"—STRAND

The thrill of big dramatic moments that throbs with human emotions, has been achieved in "The Broken Butterfly," at the Strand tonight.

The picture is a dramatization of the story Mureaux, written by Fene-long Knapp, which created a sensation.

Mureaux is a character that appeals directly to the sympathies. The pathos of the virgin-hearted girl who gave all to the man she loved, was branded as a scarlet woman by a narrow-minded and bigoted woman who tried to brutalize her sensitive nature and break her spirit, and was driven to attempt self-destruction, is overwhelming.

NAME SUPERIOR MAN SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC PROPERTY

John D. Morrissey Succeeds M. F. Blumenfeld Who Held Place Six Years

By FRED L. HOLMES

MADISON, Wis.—John D. Morrissey, Superior, was on Saturday appointed by Gov. John J. Blaine as the new superintendent of public property for Wisconsin. He will assume his new duties on Feb. 15. His term of office runs concurrently with that of the governor and will expire in January, 1923.

Probably a score of men were considered for the position, but Gov. Blaine has indicated that he was desirous of getting a man of large business experience to fill the position. Mr. Morrissey takes the place of M. F. Blumenfeld who has served for six years as superintendent of public property. Mr. Morrissey was born and educated at Marquette, Mich., and came to Superior in 1893 to become the general agent of the South Shore and Atlantic. Several years later when this road was sold to the " Soo" system, Morrissey was appointed general agent of the line. He was also the general agent there while the road was under federal control and left the service last May. Mr. Morrissey is 55 years old. He is married and has one son. He will make his home in Madison. The salary of the position is $4,000 a year. He has been prominent in the Elk lodge at Superior.

The superintendent of public property office is one of the most important in the capitol. This official has to act as purchasing agent for the state among his other duties.

ASSEMBLY MARKS TIME WHILE THE SENATE GETS BUSY

Relatively Few of Measures Prepared by Members Submitted in Lower House

GREATER PROGRESS IS EXPECTED FROM NOW ON

Adopt Resolution Making Daily
Sessions Compulsory

MADISON, Wis.—The past week of Wisconsin's legislature was marked by inactivity on the part of the assembly, while the senate forged ahead with committee hearings and with discussion of several important measures.

The lower house has apparently been unable to get under way through failure on the part of its members to bring in their bills. But a relatively few of the measures prepared have been read for the first time and are referred to committees.

Senate committee hearings started Wednesday and Thursday afternoon when 29 bills were disposed of, eight of which were being killed by committee action, and most of the others either killed or laid over.

Assembly committee hearings are scheduled to commence on Wednesday of next week when a few minor bills will be considered. It is expected that the coming week will open actively in the lower house with introduction of the large number of bills now in the hands of the members.

Get Down to Business

The legislature has decided to get down to real work, by adoption of a resolution making compulsory daily meetings except on alternate weeks. When the proposal, which has always been debated in former sessions, was brought up it received unanimous support of both houses.

Increased railroad fares and the general feeling that the session should be shortened was said to be behind the general accord with which the change was received. Many of the members are now unable to get home over the week ends and are consequently willing to stay and devote themselves to legislative work.

Committee hearings will also be held daily excepting Saturday for two weeks at a time. This move was declared to be a long step toward shortening the session.

The educational fight of the session will be precipitated by the bill calling for abolition of the State board of education, which was introduced by Assemblyman William Olson. His proposal to concentrate authority in the superintendent of public instruction is directly at variance with the views of many other members and the break which is expected on education will be brought about in the assembly when this bill is reported to committee.

Confirm Nominations

The senate during the week confirmed the nominations of Miss Abund of Viroqua as a member of the board of control, and of J. Q. Emery of Abilene as dairy and food commissioner.

Bills were suspended by unanimous consent on a number of occasions to give consideration to bills and resolutions which members felt should be privileged. A committee to readjust the state according to the recent census was provided in one suspended resolution introduced by Senator Bird of Wausau. It was Mrs. Bird to the assembly where it was assigned to committee.

Action, through suspension of the rules, was taken on a proposed constitutional amendment permitting the state to extend financial aid to settlers, but after discussion it was decided to place the matter on the calendar for early consideration by disposing with a committee hearing.

Senate committees also disposed of several important bills during the week.

The committee on corporations killed a proposal for a basic eight hour day in Wisconsin, because of its failure to provide what were considered necessary exceptions.

Kill Bonus Extension

The committee on education and public welfare killed a proposal of Senator Cornwiski that would have extended the state bonus to apply to soldiers who resided outside of the state but could establish a previous Wisconsin residence.

Adjutant General Hedway reported that the proposal would extend the bonus to 1,000 additional men and cost the state $1,000,000 while the service men would be placed in a position where they could collect a bonus from two states.

The committee on state affairs reported out to the floor a memorial to congress, drawn by Senator Dunn, asking that the United States take the initiative for world disarmament.

There will be no important bills up for consideration on the floor during the coming week from present indications. The assembly, which meets again at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon will have but little more than perfunctory business before it, while the senate will be more busily engaged, according to present indications.

Consideration of the Severson surtax bill by the senate judiciary committee will be the most important development off the floor of the legislature during the coming week.

Constitutionality of the proposed measure will be passed on, as well as the determination of a general committee recommendation. A division is expected to result because of the nature of the bill which was vetoed by Governor Phillip after it had passed the senate over committee recommendation.

PLAN TO FORCE VOTE ON COAL REGULATION MEASURE IN SENATE

Calder Bill to be Reported Out
Early Next Week for Immediate Action

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Proponents of the Calder bill providing for emergency federal regulation of the coal industry and even operation of the mines plan to seek a vote in the senate before the present session ends March 1. It is still in the manufacturing committee, but committee members said Friday it would be reported out Monday or Tuesday. Some modification of certain provisions is expected and it was said there would be a minority report opposing the system.

The expected modification would apply to taxation provisions designed by the author to keep middlemen and brokers out of coal dealings.

Chairman La Follette of the committee served notice on the representatives of the coal trade, whose opposition has been unanimous, that no more testimony would be taken after Sunday. Night sessions will be held, however, to clear up by that time.

YOUNG GIRL KILLS MOTHER BECAUSE OF OBJECTION TO LOVER

OAK CREEK, Col.—Authorities were waiting for a heavy snowstorm to abate before undertaking the fifteen-mile trip to the mountain ranch home of Frank Madra, to investigate the murder of Madra's wife by their daughter.

Madra returned to Oak Creek late Friday night, leaving his 15-year-old daughter, confessed slayer of her mother, because of the latter's objections to a much hand sifter, to take charge of the small children.

Madra is an Austrian miner who has been working in a mine here with his son this winter, leaving his wife and the children at the ranch. The alleged murder was committed three weeks ago, Madra told the authorities.

When Snow and Slush

are quite the fashion in the North, baby breezes, sunny skies, moonlit bays and tropical flowers are the fashion in the South, and those who have gone there are enjoying all sorts of out-door recreation—luxuriating in the exotic atmosphere, unmindful of furnace fires, heavy wraps and the constant menace of catling cold. Those who bid farewell to the North at this time, return realizing more than ever before the real value of a winter vacation in that romantic, historic and beautiful land South of the Mason and Dixon line.

Start right! Take a Burlington-planned trip—past, interesting and celebrated places. Go one way and return another. As soon as you decide the date on which you wish to leave, let me know, because travel is heavy down that way and I want to protect your comfort and pleasure by reserving proper sleeping car space in advance.

WHITWATER BEATEN BY LOCAL NORMAL IN SECOND BATTLE

Keeler Crew Emerges With 26 to 19 Victory Over Easterners Friday Night

La Crosse Normal again defeated the strong Whitewater Normal quint in a fast game at the Normal gym Friday night. The final score stood 26 to 19 in favor of the locals. This was the second time that the La Crosse and Whitewater aggregation met this year, the first game also resulting in a victory for the Keelerites.

The game was fast from start to finish, and at times rather rough. Many fouls were called on both teams during the game, La Crosse making eight points by this route, while the visitors scored five free throws. Capt. Rippe led in the scoring for the La Crosse outfit, having five goals from the field to his credit.

Jennings was prevented from scoring as usual by the fact that he was covered constantly. Eltinger was a whirlwind of speed and broke up many of the Whitewater plays before they got started. Reay at right forward played a fast and consistent game, and scored three baskets in the first half. "Swede" Dahlgren, the husky stationary guard, was the strong point in the La Crosse defense, spoiling many of the opponent's attempts to score. Reget, Thompson, and McConnell, who were substituted in the second half showed themselves to be of first string caliber. Thompson scored two free throws.

For the Whitewater aggregation, Puhner was easily the individual star, though Van Duser, the speedy left forward, led in the scoring with five free throws and a goal from the field.

Lineup and summary:

La Crosse—Reay and Eltinger, forwards; Jennings, center; Rippe and Dahlgren, guards.

Whitewater—Fellows and Van Duser, forwards; Saxton, center; Palmer and Kraemer, guards.

Officials—Kilbourne, referee; Meade, umpire; Weiss, timekeeper. Substitutions—La Crosse—Reget for Reay; Thompson for Jennings; McConnell for Rippe; Rippe for Dahlgren. Whitewater—Mumbrue for Van Duser; Jacobson for Fellows; Masters for Palmer. Scoring—Fellows 18; La Crosse—Rippe, 7; Reay, 3; Eltinger, 1. Whitewater—Fellows, 2; Palmer, 2; Saxton, 1; Van Duser, 1. Goals from foul—La Crosse—Jennings, 6; Thompson, 2. Whitewater—Van Duser, 3.

GOTTA HUNCH? RIDE IT!

Hunches! Everybody has 'em. Yet not everyone rides 'em. One worked for Tris Speaker last fall in the world series. Tris rolled back to Cleveland from Flatbush with the count 2 to 1 against him.

He hustled his warriors into new white uniforms. They took Uncle Robbie for a royal flush.

Every Indian player imagines the new white uniforms had something to do with their win streak. So does Tris.

He'll dress up the gang in the same haberdashery—slightly soiled—for the opener at St. Louis April 13.

They'll play the hunch of those victory uniforms all season.

You might call it a uniform hunch—since the Indians all have it.

When you gotta hunch—ride it!

SIXTEEN TEAMS ROLL IN EVENTS FRIDAY AT STATE TOURNEY

Earlier Leaders Expected to be Displaced; 634 is High Singles Score

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Sixteen teams took the drives at the Olympic alleys Friday afternoon in the State Bowling tourney and the leaders that were marked up at the start Thursday night were displaced. The Epp Buffets rolled a total of 2,646, went into the lead in the team events for the time being. Some strong teams are taking the drives later in the evening and new leaders are bound to be marked up.

Koss led the Epp Buffets with 564 pins and was the only knight to mark up a 200 count on the team. P. Hafeman was second with 559 pins, while W. Lauberg gave him a close run and scored 558 pins. J. Epp was content with 516 pins, while G. Schmidt did not get into the 500 column and scored but 494.

Doubles Score 1,100

Fenzl and Theisen went into the lead in the doubles event when they marked up a count of 1,100. This was only a few pins better than any of the previous scores rolled. A. Wagon and H. Ott having registered 1,091 with scores of 501 for Wagon and 590 for Ott.

Herb Chaffield of West Allis missed the probable chance of a lifetime in the singles event. His total of 634 put him in the lead in this event, but from the way he started out things began looking like he would even better the exceptional mark made by Swift, Milwaukee bowler, at the Manitowish tourney last year.

Fails in Last

Chaffield, after registering scores of 229 and 231, fell down in the final game and marked up a 174 count, giving him his 634 total. He started out with five straight strikes, then took three spares, missed in the ninth, but finished with a double in the tenth.

In the second game he got a spare followed by a split and then came back with six strikes and another spare. Two misses in the eighth and ninth of the last game cost him a chance to score a 660 total.

Team events will be rolled at the Olympic alleys starting at 6 o'clock. The doubles and singles events at the plankton arcade alleys will be going on until 1:30 in the morning.

BADGERS OPPOSE LEGISLATION TO AMEND BOXING LAW

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Any attempt to amend existing boxing legislation in Wisconsin will meet strong opposition, according to sport leaders here. Reports that a bill to permit fifteen round decision bouts would be presented to the state legislature elicited comment from Judge A. J. Heeding, father of the present law, who said it "would be a step backward to legalize prize fights through a law patterned after that of New York."

JAP POPULATION OF HAWAII SHOWS GAIN

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Japanese population of Hawaii in 1920 was 109,274 out of the total population of 257,912 and represented an increase for that race of about 33 per cent since 1910, the census bureau announced today.

The only race which showed a greater increase in Hawaii than the Japanese was the Filipinos, with an increase from 2,961 in 1910, to 21,041 in 1920. The native Hawaiians decreased in the last decade from 20,941 to 23,723.

The negro population of St. Louis, Mo., in 1920, was 69,803, an increase of 25,642 or 58.3 per cent, the census bureau announced. The white population was 702,764, an increase of 60,276 or 9.4 per cent, and all others 581.

SPORT SUMMARY

MILWAUKEE.—Smith's Arcade team No. 5, shooting on the last shift of the state bowling tournament last night, established a score of 2,843 as the high mark of the meet. The advance guard of out of town bowlers will enter the lists today.

PORTLAND, Ore.—The Portland boxing commission decided not to sanction arrangements for a ten round decision bout here for Jack Dempsey in April.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Jock Malone outpointed Johnny Tillman in ten rounds, according to newspapermen.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Semi-finals of the Central A. A. U. basketball tourney will be played today with Brumage of Chicago A. A. Asselin and Spiegel of Detroit A. M. C. A. and Schinner of Milwaukee Athletic club, still in the race.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Joe Coffey, an old-time wrestler and promoter, was selected today to manage the wrestling and athletic program planned for February 22 by Mrs. Marshall Field, III, and other leading society women here for the benefit of three Chicago charitable organizations.

GLOW OF CINDER PATH CALLS EBY

EARL EBY

PHILADELPHIA—Earl Eby is coming back to the cinder path.

The Penn. half-mile premier runner of the country plans to quit business and re-enter school.

Eby was the best half-mile runner in the country when he was skimming the cinders a year ago at Penn.

He was a member of the U. S. Olympic team. He pulled a tendon while abroad and did not measure up to his high standard. Returning home, he went into business.

It is believed that Eby will spend part of his time in assisting Coach Lawson Robertson this spring.

Robertson, coach of Penn. athletes for many years, isn't entirely satisfied with his present berth. He lives in Brooklyn. It's possible he'll shift to some school nearer New York next year.

MAROON TOSSERS READY FOR GAME WITH WOLVERINES

Victory Would Place Maroons in Second Place in Big Ten Race

CHICAGO.—University of Chicago basketball team will resume its battle to stick in the tightening Big Ten race tonight in a game on the home floor with the University of Michigan five.

A win will move the Maroons up to second place, one game behind the winner of the Purdue-Indiana fracas at Lafayette.

Michigan entered its fourth year of Big Ten basketball with promises of a contending team for the first time in its history, but a wretched start put the Wolverines out of the running before the other teams were warmed up.

Chicago, after a disheartening defeat at Illinois, has lost all of its overconfidence, and the Maroons are in the pink of condition.

A big advance sale of tickets assures a capacity crowd for Bartlett gym tonight. At previous games late arrivals have interfered with the players on the side lines, and beginning tonight, no spectators will be seated during the first half. The toss up is at 8 o'clock.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL PREPARED TO MEET PORTAGE TONIGHT

Portage Reputed to Have Strong Aggregation Lined up for Game

The La Crosse high school basketball team, through hard scrimmage during the past week is lined up in good shape for the tussle with the Portage high school quintet at the Dixon gymnasium Saturday night.

Coach Meade's outfit of basketballers has not lost a game so far this season and can be relied upon to put up a stiff battle with the railroaders tonight.

It is just a rumor—take it or leave it—that the Portage aggregation defeated Whitewater Normal in a game this season.

She Was All Right

There lives in Providence a very matter-of-fact man whose wife is, and always has been, a bit sentimental and fond of trying to draw from her husband those little endearments he has ever failed to furnish.

"I suppose," said she, on one occasion, "if you should meet some pretty girl you would cease to care for me?"

"What nonsense you talk!" said husband. "What do I care for youth or beauty? You suit me all right."—The Household.

A Vague Idea

"What's the play?"

"The Merchant of Venice."

"What's the plot?"

"I dunno. I think he was hauled up for profiteering."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

REYSLAND LOSES WHEEL OF CHARIOT BUT WINS DERBY

Wheel of Chariot Bites Dust After Four Blocks; Billy Joe Weedy Takes Second

Ben Hur has nothing on Warren Reysland when it comes to races.

Suffering the loss of one of the wheels of his chariot shortly after the race started, Reysland and his fast and mighty steed finished in the lead by five feet in a field of three starters.

Billy Joe Weedy was about neck and neck with the winner at the end of the race while Kramber finished in third position.

The course of the Derby was from Fifteenth and State street to the city hall. The three starters were lined up and given an even start at the get-away and it was apparent from the outset that it was a race of their lives.

Scarcely had the Reysland chariot, which was in the lead, gone four blocks when one of the wheels bit the dust while in full speed down the street.

This misfortune, however, did not seem to phase the driver for he only spoke words of encouragement to his steed and Reysland maintained a lead throughout the course.

Approaching the tape, Billy Joe Weedy was but five feet behind the leader.

The 600-yard relay staged Friday was won by the Hamilton school. Logan school placed second while Lincoln won third position.

ORDINARY BOWLING MARKS OPENING OF STATE TOURNAMENT

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Mediocre marks resulted in the inaugural five-man games of the Wisconsin Bowling association tournament Thursday night with the Building Inspectors No. 1 assuming the lead in the team division by registering 2,618 pins.

Clarence Gruetzmacher, a member of East Side four-man league, started with a 615 total, high three games. He also recorded the high single game—242.

The tournament opened in a fashion befitting the occasion. Various city officials and bowling leaders in the state gave short talks to the big audience.

Teams' standing: Building Inspectors No. 1, 2,618; Building Inspectors No. 2, 2,525; Langtry-McBrides No. 13, 2,390; Langtry-McBrides No. 14, 2,364; Langtry-McBrides No. 11, 2,350; Langtry-McBrides No. 12, 2,349.

MURCHISON TIES WORLD'S RECORD IN 70-YARD DASH

CHICAGO, Ill.—The world's record for the seventy yard dash, seven and one-fifth seconds, was tied by Loren Murchison, was tied by Loren Murchison, was tied by Loren Murchison.

The annual track contests long last night, Murchison defeated Jack Scholz of the Detroit Athletic club by an eyelash.

The Ames (Iowa), two-mile relay team defeated Notre Dame by a wide margin and Joe Ray lapped the field in the 2-mile run, winning in 10:15.

RELAY CARNIVAL AT PENN TO BREAK ALL RECORDS FOR ENTRIES

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—The University of Pennsylvania relay carnival to be held at Franklin field April 29-30, promises to break all records so far as the number of contestants is concerned. More than 3,000 are expected to take part.

McGill and Toronto university of Canada have accepted invitations. The combined universities of France also are expected to be represented.

Women Were Ready

A certain reactor just before the service was called to the vestibule to meet a couple who wanted to be married. He explained that there wasn't time for the ceremony then, "but," said he, "if you will be seated, I will give an opportunity at the end of the service for you to come forward, and I will then perform the ceremony."

The couple agreed and at the proper moment the clergyman said: "Will the holy bonds of matrimony please come forward?"

Whereupon thirteen women and one man proceeded to the altar. —The Household.

PEP UP THE GREAT AMERICAN GAME!

Women and Kids are the Undeveloped Resources of Baseball

Baseball's undeveloped resources. Managers overlook many ways to keep the game board seats jammed. As a result a lot of baseball pep that might be—just isn't.

They have the ladies' days and the kids' days. Most park owners let it go at that.

With a little La mode they'd make the fair fans and the kid fans every-day fans!

Women and kids like to be amused. They don't know all about baseball by a long shot.

They don't get the drift of all the slang peddled around a ball park. Baseball men are all fairly good business men. They wouldn't last long if they weren't. But their ideas need dusting off.

Here's the Dope

H. J. Benson, owner of the San Antonio Bronchos, thinks he's got the right dope. He'd make the women and kids more interested.

He thinks it isn't enough to have 'em clap their hands and screech a little. Benson wants 'em to go plumb yappy over the game—go wild—go bugs—go clear up in the air!

Teach 'em Slang

"Seems funny," says Benson, "that smart business men in baseball would overlook undeveloped resources. They're doing it in both the minors and majors."

"The women and kids—they're the undeveloped resources."

"A man who takes his wife to a game doesn't want to be dragged out of his rooting revelry by having her ask silly questions."

"Nine out of every ten women don't know the home plate from the family plate. They don't even know why an umpire is rotten and a losing pitcher is a bum."

Here's Benson's scheme to pep up

YANKEES SEEK COLLEGE CLASS

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—The Yankees are seeking college class here. "Hinkey" Haines, star football, basketball and baseball player at Penn State, has been approached by Muggins' scouts.

Haines declines to sign a contract until June.

"I've no plans for the future," he says, "but after I'm through school I'll look around."

Last year the Penn. Stater was rated as one of the best college players.

He plays the outfield and bats and throws right-handed. He's also exceptionally fast.

The call for college-trained baseball men is much in evidence among other big league clubs.

George Kelley's success with the Giants is an example of a college man who has made a big league star. He's from Fordham university.

FORM FOUNDATION FOR WELFARE WORK IN CONNECTICUT

HARTFORD, Conn.—A bill for a charter for the Hartley Trust fund, presented to the general assembly Friday, discloses that Mrs. Helen Hartley Jenkins will be the donor of a large sum of money, probably in the millions, to form a foundation for general welfare work in Connecticut.

Mrs. Jenkins is a daughter of Marcellus Hartley, who was the dominating figure in the development of the Remington Arms plant and the Union Metallic Cartridge plant in Bridgeport.

No, it would hardly be correct to call a moonshine consumer a light drinker.—St. Joseph's Gazette.

FACES OF FAIR FANS TELL A LOT

BUT THE KIDS REGISTER IT ALL!

the game and the owners' pocket-books:

For the Women

Give motion pictures of baseball at the theaters.

Have men who know the game lecture on it.

Teach the women to talk the baseball vocabulary—the whole book.

Give 'em bargain admittance prices. They don't appreciate the free days. Charge 'em a dime and see 'em snap at the bargains.

For the Kids

Give the kids a ten-cent gate. Make 'em earn their way in sometimes. A dime isn't much.

Arrange a few sideshows for the youngsters at the games when Nick Atrock isn't in town.

Give 'em ice cream cones and pop for rooting.

Teach 'em baseball slang. Give 'em pictures of the players with their records.

Make 'em feel they're appreciated.

For the Owners

Fans put a fortune into baseball coffers last year. The profit to the majors was ten million.

But they paid it with most of the undeveloped resources untouched.

Winning teams always pack 'em in. Losers fizzle at the box office unless they happen to have a colorful star or two to attract.

So here's the hunch—get after these undeveloped resources. Make the women and kids red-hot every-day fans.

Besides pepping up the great American game it will pep up the players' too.

MAN O' WAR GIVES FINAL SHOWING AT LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON, Ky.—Man O' War, America's champion race horse, made his final appearance at the Kentucky association track Friday afternoon.

Before a crowd that nearly filled the big grandstand and at times overflowed into the infield.

Responding to the cheers of the crowd the chestnut son of Fair Play, Mahubus was sent into a gallop from the head of the stretch past the grandstand, and Kentucky admirers of the big thoroughbred were given their first and last chance to see him in action.

Man O' War was taken to Hima farm, near here, where he will make his future home.

FIRST BAPTISTS DEFEAT HOLMEN ALUMNI FRIDAY

Stage Comeback in Final Period and Overcome Marginal Lead of Highs

Staging a comeback in the final period of the game, the First Baptist church basketball team defeated the Holmen high school alumni team on the latter's floor Friday night by a score of 18 to 15.

Although the Holmen team maintained a lead throughout the first half, the locals mustered up and overcame the handicap shortly before the end of the game. Both aggregations played a strong defensive game and it was only the better team work on the part of the Baptists in the final period that gave the locals the long end of the score.

BABE RUTH MAY PLAY FIRST BASE

NEW YORK.—With the prospect becoming more definite for Babe Ruth to appear in the role of a first baseman for the Yankees this year, fans are beginning to wonder what effect, if any, the switch from the outfield will have upon the home run champion's slugging ability.

It has been a superstition for years that in the garden a player has less defensive work and worries than in any other position and consequently can concentrate more on his batting.

This would appear to be borne out by the fact that most of the batting champions of recent times have been outfielders. But it must be remembered that outfielders are selected for their offensive ability, while in the other positions a player's defense is stressed. As a consequence a man who makes good in the outer line of defense just naturally must be a whale of a clubber to hold his job.

BASKETBALL FRIDAY

EAU CLAIRE, Wis.—Eber Palls Normal school basketball team defeated Eau Claire Normal 18-17 last night.

OSHKOSH, Wis.—Oshkosh Normal basketball team defeated Stevens Point Normal last night, 32-28.

APPLETON, Wis.—Lawrence college basketball team defeated Carroll college of Wausau here last night, 28-10.

LA FAYETTE, Ind.—Purdue defeated Indiana 27-17 in basketball.

NEW LONDON, Wis.—The Edison basketball team of this city, defeated the Northern paper mill side of Green Bay here last night, 36 to 16.
